WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. - Governor Pennoyer, of Oregon, sent to Senators Dolph and Mitcheli a request to examine his letter to the chief engineer of the United States army, recently published in THE OBEGONIAN, containing suggestions for the opening of the Columbia river to speedy navigation. and oave examined the same. In this letter you state that you have always favored the improvement to overcome the obstructions to navigation at The balles by the building of a boat railway, provided one or the other was to be built, but you suggest that in your judgment a practical opening of the river along such portage could be made with the outlay of a sum not exceeding $500,000 by the building of a standard portage railroad. In response to your letter; and the suggestions contained in your communication to the chief of engineers, I must be piermitted to say to you that it is too late now for efficient the Orugou delegation in congress, who here for several accsions been giving this matter their especial attention, or the governor of Oregon, or say lone else, to make suggestions to like shele; of engineers of the United States army with a view or any kind of hope of inducencing the decision of that of the character of Alliprovement to be made at the delies and Cellife falls, and for this simple reason congress, at the last session but made at the dailes and Celifor falls, and for this simple reason congress, at the last session but one, by a clause in the river and barbor bill, directed the secretary of war to designate a commission, to be compared of United States engineers, whose duty it should be to make a thorough innestigation in regard to the best neans of overcoming the obstructions to navigation at The Dailes and Celifo, and to report to the next congress.

United States Letter.

United States Street, 1880.

Hon, Sylvester Fennoyer, Governor, of Oregon, Balom, 0r.—My Dear Governor. Vesterday, after I had received your letter of the lith inst., I called upon the chief of engineers to examine your letter to him concerning the proposed improvement at the dalles of the Columbia.

Your latter had not reached him; but I have

OUR SENATORS' REPLY.

I am sure had good grounds for so understanding, that you favored the project of a boat rating. It is present from your letter to the chief of engineers, as published in The Oreonnian, that since you addressed the Waterway convention you have changed your opinion, and now favor a standard gauge portage railroad.

You are probably aware that the United States engineers have recommended a protage railroad as a temporary expedient to overcome the obstructions at this point, while a canal and lock of a boat railway is being contracted. Congress has never entered upon the work of constructed. The Examining Commission Has Descure, an appropriation for the purpose of buildsecure, an appropriation for the purpose of building a portage railroad. Besides, I fear that such a road would afford but little relief. Freight would have to be made fer operating the road, and whenever there was a failure of appropriations for that purpose the operation of the road would be discontinued.

But if this were not so, the whole matter is now in the hands of the United States engineers and the secretary of war. By initing efforts the Oregon delegation in congress secured a provision in the last river and harbor bill requiring the secretary of war to appoint a board of engineers to examine the dailes and Colifo rapids, to report to compress a pian for their improvement and the estimated cost thereof. The board was consistented at once, consisting of some of the most eminent officers in the engineer corps, who proceeded to axamine the rapids, caused the naccessary surverys to be usade, and then, under the direction of the accretary of war, visited Europe to examine the modern hydrafulle fifts in operation there, and to obtain all the information on the subject which was available. Coloned Standell is now in San Francisco, proparing the report of the board, and with the assistance of Lieufenant Burr, who was detached from the work in Oregon for that purpose, is preparing the plans and estimates for the work. I am assured by the clief of engineers that the report will be ready by the time congress meets. The report of the board, and nothing that rou or I could say, to either of them would, or should, influence him as to the character of the report.

It is strange that although the project for the It is strange that although the project for the improvement of these rapids by canal and locks, or tool railway was projected years ago and has been under discovered that neither will answer the purpose; that the boats which navigate the upper river can not navigate the lower river, and that recight must be transferred from one boat to another at this point. I do not believe that it is so. It is true that some boats that navigate the lower river could not navigate the upper river on account of their draft; but I think there is no boat that is altunch enough to navigate the upper river but that is also seaworthy enough to navigate the lower river to Portland and Astoria.

I believe that a boat railway is entirely practicable. I wish to see the river improved at this point in such a manner as to afford speedy relief to the needle of Enstern Oregon and Eastern Washington. I do not believe that a portage railroad would silord the relief required. Of course, a canai and locks would, but the cost is og reat that it would probably require fifty rears to complete the work with the appropriations which would likely be made for it. For this reason I isvor a boat railway, because it can be constructed in a very short time and for but a fraction of the cost of caual and locks; and if the board abould report in favor of it, I shall endeavor to secure an appropriation to comence the work.

I have no doubt your letter will be used before the committee and before congress as an official statement from the governor of the state to the effect that a canal or boat railway would not afford practical relief, and that even after the obstructions to navigation at the point in question were removed, boats navigating the upper Columnia could not descend the lower liver. Yours I. N. DOLPH.

incertains of overcoming the obstructions to navigation at the Dulles and Celifo, and to report to the next congress.

In pursuance of this act of congress the accretary of war, over one year ago, apnointed a commission composed of some of the most eminent members of the United States engineer corps, the chairman being Colonel. Mendenhall, now in charge of river and harbor improvements on the Pacific coast. That commission has devoted months to a thorough investigation of the subject; have visited Europe for the purpose of examining into and lighty advisifing themselves in reference to the best means to be employed is oxforcoming these obstructions, and they are ready to make their report. That report will infdoubtedly receive the sanction of the chief of engineers and the accretary of war.

While as yet the report has not been, made public, I think I am sufficiently advised as to its nature to be able to say to you that a portage atandard gauge railroad will not be recommended, nor do I believe a canal and locks with, but I do believe the recommendation will be in Jayor of a

The comptrelier replied that the money amounting to about 1500 could not be paid to him because his name is not in the hist included in the original act, nor has it since been added to the list under certification by he secretary of war. The money was apportioned among the men whose names were mentioned, according to their trains, and to pay another out of the fund, which is about an analysis would be contrary to law. Atwood's only chance is through a special act.

The plaintiff has made a motion to overrute the femurer on the ground that the policy did not provide for any such contingency, but merely promised pay to Schredmer's hairs the face value in the event of his death. recommendations of this combission and of the chief of hagineers and the secretary of war, then I am quite sure their recommendation will meet with the approval of rongress, while I am quite sure it would be utjerly impossible to secure the approval of congress for an appropriation direct from the treasury to construct a portage standard gauge railroad.

In a word, therefore, in view of the action already taken by congress at the instance of the parestigation and progress made by the commission referred to, it would be unwise and musdvisable to the last degree to undertake at this late day to suggest to the chief of engineers new plana, or modes of overcoming these obstructions. For one I am not, and never have been favorable to the construction of a canal and locks at The Dalles, for the simple reason that it would require three generations, the way appropriations are made by congress for such works, to build the work. A portage railroad might act as a meann of temporary railed, but I have long since come, to the conclusion that congress will not lend its aid to a work of that character, while as a permanent matter it is objectionable on account of having to re-transfer freight above and below. precedent and the decision will be the first of the cited on record in likinols. The defendant will contest the matter and will in all probability make a fight on the proposition, that finding for the plaintif would be against public policy, as it would virtually offer a premium to murder. matter it is objectionable on account of having to re-transfer freight above and below.

I have been for several years, and am now carnestity in favor of a boat railway as the only means, in my judgment, of permanently overcoming these obstructions, and I shall continue to insist on that kind of an improvement, unless, indeed, the commission, to which, I have referred, abould report against it. Should they do this then I will consider, in connection with my colleagues in congress, the next best thing, and will be glad to have suggestions from all sources.

I do not think there is anything in the suggestion you offer that a different character of boats will be required above and below these obstructions. THE INJUSTICE OF IT

Democratic newspapers, discussing the iff, often discuss it a spirit of total unconsciousness of their own facts and of the bearing of their own facts on the tariff case as now presented in the contention be-tween the parties. Thus we find in the New York Rorld an artic e in which protection of York Morld an artice in which protection of sugar is denounced as robbery of the consumers of the country. The Morld declares that the sugar industry is the ideally protected undustry, "that 'this product of protection has turned out a curse," that it is the perfect on of economic boliness imagined by the republicans," and that what the republican prays that every industry now. m is become, the sugar industry now is

This coming as it does from a great dem ocrafic journal, is truly a remarkable de liverance. But, let us ask what party is the champion of augar protection? Dad the Mills oil offer free sugar? On the contrart did it not continue protection to raw su, ar at the demand of Southern planters and to refi led angar at the demand of the refi ters of \ w York? Was not this offered in the Mile bid as a bribe to Lou slane and New York city?

The members of congress from Louisana both senators and representatives went to the Mills committee and said plunty that Louisiana would not submit to deprivation of the protective duty on sugar, that they would not support the Mills bill unless pro tection to sugar were still guaranteed and that fouisiana could not be held to the democratic party if the tariff policy of the party included a demand for free trade in lakewise Mr. Havemeter, of New Tork head of the sugarring of that city and a prominent democratic politician, went to Washington and saw the Mills committee, explanation, and presumebly offered a large sum for the feform cam paign" just then opening an I the duties on refined sugar were kept in the Milis bill at the rates which the great sug it trust finds so satisfictory to its interests

In these circumstances it requires some hardsbood in a democratic journal to de nonnea protection of sugar as a scheme of robbery, and to assert that the republican party is responsible for its continuance But the New York World is equal to the demand

Here in Portland is another World a dem-ocratic weekly, which discusses the subject in similar unconsciousness of the facts and of their bearing on the present issue be treen the parties 'Educate the farmer' It-ays, 'to domaid his share of the benefits otection and the whole system of a or protection and the whole system of a protective tariff will be wiped out. Organ ized to build up the manufacturing industries of the country, at the expense both of the agricultural and commercia so well has the accomplished its purpose that our commerce has been wiped from the ocean and the profits of the agriculturist absorbed by the tariff tax. ' This is another amazing note acheme, that proposes to take away from the farmer his share of the benefits of pro-toction, in order that the manufacturer may have still a larger share. It is because the democratic tariff scheme is a scheme for Eastern manufacturers and Southern plant ers that it was defeated last year by the workers in the fields, forests and munes of the country The c aim of the Eastern man ufacturer to "free raw materials" is a blow at every productive industry of the West Eastern manufacturers who have been enriched by protection during mun; years' now find factories growing up all over the West, and they want to got their raw ma terials free of duty from foreign countries so as to obtain a new advantage over West ern industry and make more money than

This is the scheme ti at the democratic party now aids and abots. In the present aspect of the tariff question there is a new contest between the Eastern manufacturer and the Western producer, and the demo cratic party takes the side of the Eastern manufacturer Bich as he is, it proposes to manuacturer facts as he is, it proposes to enrich bim still more. Holding the South, it is bidding for the East, and, to get this combination, it proposes to deprive the North and West of their just share of pro-tection. It is a most unfair scheme and the more it is discussed the clearer will its injustice become

THE MOLMON QUARRED

The frightful story of Mormon atrocities told in our dispatches yesterday, is very likely true but it belongs to the past. and not to the present struggle between the peeple and the Mormons which is a fight against the political supremacy of the 'Saints' Brigham Young arrived in Utah with his followers in 1848. In 1850 congress gave to Utah a form of government the counterpart of that given to other territories. Brigham Young was made evering and at Brigham Young was made governor and at under the direction of Young, transferred the powers and duties pertaining to the gov ernorship into other hands, in order to keep the government secure from national cotrol and interference when Young should Gentile In violation of the seventh section of the organic act of 1850, an unlawful tion of the organic act of 1850, an unlawful government was organized. An act passed February 8 1851 gave the Mormon church corporate powers to hold real and personal property free from taxation, not for the purposes of worship only, but for general business, and under this the Mormon heirarghy, thick-parament High held farms stopat rails. which governed Utab, held farms stores, rail-way stock, banks, telegraphs, theaters, cattle sheep etc

This act was inlended to defend the estab lished religion from legal control or investi-gation, to create Mormon ecclesiastical courts with pains and penalties The Mor-). mon church, beyond question, was esteemed and by law declared sovereign, and the Mormon legislature, by the passage of these laws recognizing the church actually established religion in violation of the Constitution of the United States, so that the Mor mon quarrel, since that early date of usurp ation and nutlification in Utah, has seen between the sovereignty of the Mormon church and the sovereignty of the United States The Mormon leaders from the days of 1850 aimed to perpetuate an illegal and unepublican government they have incul cated crime and conspired to nullify the laws of the United States For more than thurty vents the legislation of Utah was inimica ind subversive of the Federal authority Taxes were levied upon the min orty to build schools upon church property, luto which the children of the minority do not enter, the whole system of imagration was given over to the "church in nagration was given over to the "church" and was supported by over to the "cource and was percentaged confiscations authorized by the territorial legislatures. The brutal and remorseless tyranny of this Mormon bierarchy which boldly proclaimed polygamy as early as 1852, wared so fat and insolent through impunity that finally the Federal officials were in sulted and threatened and finally driven from the territory

Then in 1857 the situation became so grave that President Buchanan sent General Albert S Johnston with several thousand troops to Sait Lake to remove Brigham Young Young forbade the army to enter Utab, called out his militia, burned the gov-ernment supply trains and drove in its stock During this year occurred the massacre of Monatain Meadow for which John D Lee was executed in 1877 Had it not been for the breaking out of the civil war in 1881 it is probable that the Mormon usurpation and milification in Utah would have ben promptly considered by the republican party in congress which had us far back as the national convention of 13.6 denounced polygamy as the twin relic of barbarians In 1862 the first anti-poly-amy bill was passed declaring bigany a crime, and the same act of congress declared that it shall not be lawful for any corporation or association, for religious or obstitable purposes to acquire or hold real estate in any term tory of a greater value than $11000 The Mormons were in sympaths with the Southern Confederacy and Lincoln had fund of the territory

railroads, the coming of non Mormonsthe miners the fame of salt I the sa health and pleasure resort has destroyed exclusiveness and isolation destroyed exclusiveness and isolation the first generation of Mormons is fast passing away. To be an apostate is no longer dargerous and the Reorganized Mormon Church," which rejects polygany and is law abiding will have no cause of and is law abiding will have to cause of quarrel with the Gentiles or the govern ment. From a situation of supreme despotic authority the polygamou. Mormon church has been reduced to at least outward

THE CITY'S MILK SUPPLY

It is exceedingly gratifying to know that State Food Commissioner E-se is giving such attention to the milk supply of this city as the importance of the case demands. Beports of diseased cows feel on the refuse of distilleries cooped up in unclean and foul smelling stables and forced to drink green and slims water have caused a shudde disjust and dismay throughout the city hothing is more sickening in contemplation than diseased and offensive milk, and nothing is more sickening in reality than partak-ing of the vile stuff. The law upon this sub-ject is sufficently stringent both in a prohibitory and put itive sense to protect the people from impositions in the way of im pure milk if it is properly applied Luke the temperance laws of the state however this law will not enforce itself and vigilance on the part of the public is necessary to ret der it effective

If the state food commissioner cannot give If the state food commissioner cannot give the attention to the matter necessary to insure a pure milk supply to this city and its suburbs—and it may be unreasonable to expect him to do this—then the city should have a milk inspector whose business it is to make himself acquainted with the management and condition of the milk ranches and the cows kept for the purpose of supplying the city with milk. A visit to these places now and then is not afficient. They should now and then us not sufficient They should be looked after constantly by an intelligent, capable inspector and their proprietors be forced if necessary to observe the law in regard to a pure milk supply Common humanity makes earnest appeal in this matter on behalf of the children who are well-in case the reports concerning the sale of milk from diseased cows proves investigation to be correct—to make an example of the men who, in selling the disease breeding fluid have not only violated the law but have disregarded the plainest precepts of humanity

The suit of the Western Union Telegraph Company against the Electric Light Company, of Seattle, opens a new held of possi blittles in electric litigation, and points out the real cause of danger to life and property from electric currents Electric mischlef almost invariably comes from the over crowding of wires. The electric light wires when there are not too many of them, or when they are not constructed near other wires are harmless enough because the current in them can be confined and con trolled It is through accidental contact with other wires, telegraph, telephone and fire slarm that the escipes of electricity so fatal to life occur. Such casualties as those that have luttly horrified New York occur where hundreds of wires are crowded to gether so that accidental contact may occur and insulation be destroyed almost at any is noticeable that few of these accidents are heard of in other cities, whose topography permits a more general diffusion of wires than is possible in the narrow throat of the lower end of Manhattan island Liability to accident occurs then where a region thickly crowded with telegraph teleone, police and fire alarm wires, harmless themselves is invaded by heavily charged ectric light wires, comparatively harmless in themselves This being so, the Western Union company in Settle proposes to go into the courts to test its right to keep the electric light wires at a safe distance. The question so raised as not a new one, but it appears never to have been so finally and definitely decided as to remore it from the field of controversy. The progress of the Seattle case will be watched with much in terest

Some of the suggestions in General Scho field a annual raport relative to the re-or ganization of the army will have great in terest for the officers of the line Besides endorsing the three battallon plan of orgenization of the infantry he advises an in crease of the artillery regiments to seven, obtaining the officers necessary to supply them by taking one first Heutenant from each present battery. The recommendation that commissions to regimental offices be hereafter made by service instead of by reg-iment, is an excellent one. The present 33 stom of regimental commissions makes pro-motions by servicity were recombled the notions by seniority very unequal in differ ent regiments and inspires a natural jest ousy and discontent. The change recom monded would be in the line of equity, and would put new spirit and hope into a good many slow reg ments. It is to be hoped bat something will be heard of Manderson bill this winter It embodied some of these reforms and m ght be made to include all The almy has not been much considered in recent legislation

The 'effers of Senators Dolph and Mucheli to Governor Pennoyer published in Tig Orgonian this morning seem effectually ORREGARM this morning seem effectually to dispose of the scheme for a portage rad way around the Dalles Congress has referred the whole problem of overcoming the obstructions to navigation in the Columbia above Portland to a board of military engineers This board will not even c aider the plan for a portage railway regarding it as entirely outside the legitimate jurisd ction of the war department over interstate water navigation. On the other hand the board of which Colonel Mendell to chief has given very careful and thorough consideration to the boat railway proje t

DEMOCRATS NEVER CHANGE.

The Dalles Times Houndancer Democrats are democrats all the year yound, and, like the law of the Medes and Persions, never know a change, On the contrary the adherents of the republican party are attracted by our, new issue and one day are prohibitionists another greenbackers, and so on in almost every election the democracy draws its full strength. On the entrary rarely in any election do the republicans boil their full strength. And this is the gravon that in 'off years many states who are attached to the party elect democratic officials. DOING THE BEST THEY CAN. Land Agent Andrews, of the Oregon & California Railroad Go , Explains the Land Difficulty. The recent heavy immigration into Southern Oregon has driven hundreds of homessekers into mountain and heavily-timbered bottom lands, hitherto comparatively uninhabited. An enormous increase has been made in the business of the government land offices, and the Oregon & California is besieged with questions as to its lands. Numerous inquiries have also been addressed to The Oregonary would spraise their lands throughout the state.

The anxioty is brought on by the inability of the settlers to buy the railroad's lands until they have been appraised. A gentleman who has recently been among these new settlers stated to a reporter that there are thousands of sorce which have been selected by inem, and, in many instances, actually settled upon, though they are wholly at sea as to when they will have an opportunity to buy the land. A reporter was accordingly detailed yesteday in question Mr. George H. Andrews, the company's land agent, about the matter.

The expense, too, is no small item, say along the capense to be seen to plate which is a section. A Strong Effort Being Made to Secure Street Improvements.

Some Very Amusing Extracts Made by Imprisoned Balvationists Various Misoellanesco Botes.

There is a strong effort being made to secure the improvement of H and G streets to the eastern limits of the city. It is desired to get the preliminary steps taken in the council, so that work may be commenced early in the spring. It is important that H and G streets should be improved, as there are no improved streets extending east and west in that portion of the city. The people owning property on both those streets are very auxous to have them improved, and, it is stated, will come into the council shortly with a petition for the improvement.

Adjutant Parker, of the Salvation Army, sent to the War Cry in San Francisco an account of the experience of his comrades in the East Portland city jail. The following are a few extracts:

He sould not have been very "soundly converted," is he was seen drinking in a soloon in Albina by a city officer one day this week. It is not probable that the police will feel complimented over the ADDENTISTS' INSTITUTE.
